

Spiritual, Moral, Social, and Cultural Development Policy

Our Christian Vision is that - Everyone is welcome.

Everyone who spends time learning and growing at Longhoughton is encouraged to reach their full potential with courage, compassion and creativity to make a difference in the future. We are respectful of God's world, working together to create a loving and caring community.

This is founded in 1 Peter 4:10 - 11 "God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of gifts. Use them well to serve one another."

Rationale:

In this Church of England School the ethos is founded on Christian values and beliefs and in particular on the unique capacity and worth of each individual.

Spiritual development needs to be viewed as something fundamental to the human condition which is not necessarily experienced through the physical sense and/or expressed through everyday language. It has to do with relationships, with God for those who believe, and with other people. It has to do with the universal search for individual identity and with our responses to challenging experiences, the search for meaning and purpose in life and for values by which to live.

We see 'Spirituality' as an awareness in 4 areas:

- Inwards - towards yourself
- Outwards - to others
- Downwards to the environment
- Upwards - to 'God' or a 'higher being'

Moral development is principally about the pupils' progressive acquisition of the competences and qualities needed to play a full part in society.

Cultural development is principally about pupils' understanding of those beliefs, values, customs, knowledge and skills which taken together, form the basis of identity and cohesions in societies and groups.

Social development is given high priority in our school and spiritual, moral, social and cultural aspects of development are equally as important as academic development.

Aims and purpose

- To promote the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of our pupils.

Principles of Teaching and Learning

Spiritual, moral, social and cultural development will be achieved through the whole curriculum which includes the subjects taught and the activities and experiences which make up the broader curriculum.

The word 'development' suggests that the child can make progress. It is important to note that this is not necessarily a linear process but the following steps illustrate a possible path of progression:

- Recognising the existence of others as independent from oneself
- Becoming aware of and reflecting on experience
- Questioning and exploring the meaning of experience
- Understanding and evaluating a range of possible responses and interpretations
- Developing personal views and insights
- Applying insights gained with increasing degrees of perception to one's own life

Ways in which we currently encourage growth in these areas:

- Celebration worships
- Opportunities for group and team work within the curriculum
- Promoting creativity within the curriculum
- Quiet times for thought and reflection within the class and at worship time
- Encouraging response to material - paintings, music, prayers, stories

Monitoring and review

- Pupil interviews and discussion groups
- Pupil, parent & staff questionnaires

This policy is linked to the whole school ethos and in particular to the Religious Education Policy; within the RE Policy parents have the right to withdraw children from RE lessons. In some cases withdrawing the child from the RE curriculum may impact on some of the spiritual, moral, social and cultural developments of the child. In these situations the school will look at the individual needs of the child.

Other school policies and documents which are linked to this policy are:

- Anti-Bullying
- Behaviour
- Equality
- Inclusion
- Safeguarding
